

Volunteer Agreement Back to the Sea Society

Confidentiality

I, _____, acknowledge and accept that it is a condition of volunteering with the Back to the Sea Society (the "Society") that during and after my time with the Society I will not disclose to anyone any information arising from the operation of the business. This includes, but is not limited to, customer and supplier list, contracts and agreements, email and other forms of communication directly or indirectly related to the Society, research and development, production operations and facilities, and planning activities of the company, unless such disclosure is expressly authorized by the Society.

I further acknowledge and agree that any email or other correspondence, reports, books, customer and supplier list, employee and volunteer information, price lists quotes, estimates, formulae, designs, prints, computerized programs and data, and other material directly or indirectly related to the Society's activities are and shall be treated by me as the sole property of the Society, and are to be maintained as confidential both during and after my volunteer involvement with the Society.

Conflict of Interest

I understand that the Back to the Sea Society considers that a conflict of interest means a situation in which an insider has a personal, business, or professional interest which conflicts with the person's duty to act in the best interest of the Society.

Listed below are any relationships, positions, interest or circumstances in which I am involved that I believe are reasonably likely to contribute to a Conflict of Interest.

For example, Boards of which you are a member, your employer, the names of any business you own or control, etc.

I hereby Certify that the information set forth above is true and complete to the best of my knowledge.
